

All fundraising conducted by or on behalf of the Medical Mercy Canada Society (MMC) must:

- Be Truthful
- Accurately describe MMC's activities
- Disclose MMC's name
- Disclose the purpose for which the funds are requested
- Disclose MMC's policy with respect to issuing Official Income Tax Receipts including any policy on minimum amounts for which a receipt will be issued
- Disclose, upon request, whether the individual or entity seeking donations is a volunteer, employee or contracted third-party
- Include MMC address or other contact information on all fundraising materials

Anyone seeking or receiving funds on behalf of MMC, whether a volunteer, employee or contracted third party must:

- Act with fairness, integrity and in accordance with all applicable laws
- Cease contacting a prospective donor who states he/she does not wish to be contacted
- Disclose immediately to the organization any actual or apparent conflict of interest or loyalty
- Not accept donations for purposes that are inconsistent with the organization's mission

MMC does not:

- Exploit its beneficiaries. We are sensitive in describing those we serve (whether using graphics, images or text) and fairly represent their needs and how these needs will be addressed
- Make claims that cannot be upheld or are misleading
- Directly or indirectly, pay finder's fees, commissions or percentage compensation based on contributions

Any questions related to the content of this policy or its interpretation should be directed to the Board of Directors.
